New Menu at No 2 On Milner

For those seeking a taste of the good life, the superb restaurant, No 2 on Milner, serves up a fine array of both local and international cuisine. Head Chef, James Wamboy brings a sense of creativity and sophistication to the hotel's signature restaurant, and is in fact The Cape Milner's secret ingredient.

James' interest in cuisine began in 1997 as a kitchen assistant in Namibia, thereafter he made the move to the mother city to pursue his dreams in culinary excellence and worked as an assistant chef at Cool Runnings. His reputation preceded him as he joined the Cape Milner in 2001 as Senior Chef De Partie, and was later promoted to Sous Chef. His ambitious drive afforded him with an opportunity to open his own restaurant in 2006, Afrodelic Café. With his refreshing approach to cuisine as well as in-depth knowledge of the industry, James continued to enjoy success as the head chef at Villa Belmonte and Leinster Hall, and in April 2007 The Cape Milner Hotel welcomed back the culinary wizard.

James is constantly encouraging his dedicated staff to always keep on top of their game while keeping abreast of industry trends. His self-perseverance has contributed to making No 2 on Milner one of the finest dining venues in Cape Town.

The Cape Milner has become the hotel of choice for models, actors and their production crews, especially now with the international television production season currently in full swing and who have become synonymous following healthier eating regimes. Inspired by these 'Hollywood guests' head chef James, brings a sense of creativity and sophistication to the hotel's signature restaurant, No 2 on Milner.

The introduction of a new health conscious menu says adios to heavy sauces and starchy side orders, and hola to fresh produce with a large choice of fish, Seafood and chicken dishes, complimented by tasty salads, grilled vegetables and fresh herbs. (also doing away with deep fried – mostly grilled and roasted) Our new menu can be enjoyed at breakfast whilst gazing at the mountain, curled up in bed indulging in room service, off the a la carte menu, and even as a conference delegate in the hotel.

The Cape Milner Hotel is an oasis where discerning visitors enjoy modern comforts away from home. Whether your visit is for business or pleasure, the Cape Milner's luxury facilities are in a class of their own. Offering a sophisticated and contemporary ambience, coupled with a retro-inspired décor, it is well known for its service excellent and high standards.
